Emma Croft Hair & Makeup Artist & Dept. Head

Professional Summary

With over a decade in my field, I have enjoyed an international career working equally across film/television and fashion/editorial, heading the hair and makeup department on films and primetime TV shows including multi-BAFTA-winner 'Stath Lets Flats', and commercials/editorials for brands such as Gucci, Stella McCartney and Rag & Bone. I've also had the privilege of working on music videos for some of the world's biggest musicians including Bad Bunny, The Weeknd, Fallout Boy, Bishop Briggs, Finneas and Years & Years, as well as working with A-list personal clients such as Lebron James, 50 Cent, Ashe, Bella Thorne and Gayle.

Trained in all areas of hair & makeup including barbering, period hair and makeup FX, I aim to always provide a unique style and creative designs in my work, which led me to win at the 2018 Unrestricted View Film Festival for my work on the film 'Another Game', and another win at the 2018 UK Music Video Awards (UKMVA) for my work on the video 'If You're Over Me' by Years & Years. I was also nominated at the 2017 UKMVAs for the video 'Tyburn Jig' by Police Dog Hogan where I turned 7 band members into 29 different Victorian characters, where I was able to use a number of my skillsets including period wigs, prosthetics and character makeups.

As a self-proclaimed film nerd, and having trained in film & TV production for 2 years prior to makeup, I feel so lucky I get to work in the industry that has excited me more than any other. I am originally from London, UK and a member of the Emmy's Television Academy, but the next and most recent phase of my journey has brought me to live and work in Los Angeles, where you will currently find me.
